A black and white photograph of a woman with short, dark, curly hair, smiling at the camera. She is wearing a light-colored, short-sleeved blouse and a dark apron. She is holding a clear glass bottle with both hands. To her left is a rack of several identical glass bottles. In the background, there is a window with a bright light source, possibly a lamp, and a sink with a faucet. The number '2397' is printed in the center of the image.
