DICK SCHMIDT (Marketing Communications) holds plaque containing a wadded-up piece of computer accounting paper with a pencil jammed into it during his recent 30-year anniversary "roast" at a Beaverton restaurant. The inscription on the plaque reads: "There's no accounting for the past 30 years." Delivering the "roast" was Herb Quigley (Marketing Communications manager), right, and joining the festivities was Dick's wife, Delores (left). Dick joined Tek in 1949 and has also been active in the Tek Credit Union for many years.
