ANNIVERSARY

*Can't you just hear it?
some distant clock
—HUGE clock
with pendulum swinging.*

*The resonance of it
spreads across the sky,
tick tick, tick tick—
the clouds vibrate!*

*In an instant
It slams out twenty years
gobbling days and months
so ravenously.*

*You can only stand in awe—
listening,
watching,
wondering where the time went.*

...tick tock

...tek tock

...tek, tek tek.
