

Reports, election, prizes dominate 'CU' meeting

DRAWING THE winning numbers from the box held by Ted Shaver at the CU meeting last week was Debbie Strong.

CREDIT UNION board members are (from left) Dick Schmidt, treasurer; Willie Henning; Carl Taylor, president; Home Speer; Reggie Halligan, vice-president; and Dave Easton. Laura Lusk, secretary, is not pictured.

See story
on next page

TOM COX, newly elected credit committee member (right), was the winner of the electric floor polisher at the CU meeting. The gift was presented by Bud Wall. Also pictured is Reggie Halligan (left).

DON KEPLER, Personnel Services manager (standing), raised questions from the floor at Credit Union meeting.

MORE THAN 150 members attended the 13th annual meeting of the Tektronix Employees' Credit Union in Assembly Cafeteria (45) on Thursday, January 20. A 4½ percent dividend was announced at the session.

GENE PAUL, Plant 4 A/C, was one of the Credit Union members to collect election ballots at the CU meeting.