Board of Directors

Jane Barber—Employee Benefits manager, has been with Tek for 14 years.

“As a member of the credit union for many years, I consider it an honor to be nominated to the board. If elected, I will work to maintain the high quality of the credit union, to further its efforts in helping Tek employees and to promote its growth and services. I welcome an opportunity to join with other members in contributing to its continued success.”

John Boone—Market Development manager, Information Display Division, has been with Tektronix for five years.

“I have both borrowed and saved at credit unions for over 20 years. I am honored to be nominated and welcome the opportunity to serve the Tek Credit Union and its members.”

Paul Brennan has worked at Tektronix for five years, most recently in Corporate Planning as manager of Financial Analysis and Planning. Paul has served as chairperson of the Supervisory committee and has been a member of the board of the credit union for the past year.

“I am grateful for the experience I have had serving as a member of the board. I feel I can make a contribution to the growth and the efficient operation of our credit union if elected to the board and I would appreciate the opportunity to serve the members again.”

Marcellyn Jandreau has been with Tek for 20 years and is presently a manager in CRT.

“I’ve been a member of our credit union for many years and take a sincere interest in its continuing success. During the past year it’s been my pleasure to serve on the Credit committee and now I feel I can make a contribution toward improving and expanding services to members by serving on the Board of Directors.”

Jim Madison has been with Tek for almost nine years, working in various accounting positions and in CRT. He is presently in Storage CRT as the Production manager.

“The two years that I spent on the credit union Supervisory committee exposed me to two important facts about the credit union. One is that the credit union plays an important part in our lives and secondly, our credit union is a very effective organization.

“With these two facts in mind, I would welcome the opportunity to serve and make a contribution to the continued growth and success of our credit union.”

Sheila Welton has been employed at Tek for 15½ years, and presently is a manager in Mechanical Component Planning.

“For the last two years I have served on the Credit committee. It has been an interesting and rewarding experience for me to have been involved with the operations and progression of the credit union. I would appreciate the opportunity to continue serving the membership in helping to achieve the goals and advancement of our credit union.”

Ken Yabuki has been with Tek over 14 years in various positions in manufacturing, engineering, management, sales and marketing.

“Throughout my years with Tek I’ve utilized many of the fine services provided by our credit union. I now look forward to serving the membership by contributing my efforts to assure continued, positive growth as a member of the Board of Directors.”

Credit Committee

Bonnie Ashenbrenner has been with Tek since September 1965. She has worked in Plastics, Electro-Mechanical, Switches, Compensation and is presently working in ECB in Wilsonville.

“Having been a member of the credit union for over eleven years and used their various services and served as an alternate Credit committee member, I would again like to volunteer my services on the Credit committee.

“Having the Credit committee members on a volunteer basis, insures that the people volunteering for the Credit committee are willing to donate their time, have a sincere interest in the Credit Union and its members and are willing to make the Credit committee a successful operation. I would like to volunteer my services for another year.”

Dennis Connor has been with Tektronix for 16 years, working in various production and staff positions and presently is the manager of the Customer Material Distribution Receiving, Packaging and Technical Support Area.

“I have been an active member of our credit union for 16 years and have served on the Credit committee in the past, most recently in 1975. Member participation is what has made our credit union what it is today. I would welcome the opportunity to once again serve the credit union in the forthcoming year. Personal involvement from participating members is what makes our credit union beneficial to all.”

Al Foltz started at Tek in August 1967, and presently holds the position of Area Rep Coordinator.

“Thank you for nominating me as a Credit committee member. If elected, I will serve you enthusiastically, honestly and fairly.”

Bill Gilbert has been with Tektronix for over 16 years and is presently manager of Facilities Purchasing.

“I have been a member of the credit union for a good many years and take a serious interest in its successful operation. As a member of the Credit committee, I would strive to contribute at least as well as my predecessors with the hope of bringing new insights to the job and to provide the enthusiasm needed to perform for the benefit of the credit union members.”

Laurie Graves has been with Tek since September 1962, about 10 years in Export Marketing starting as an Export clerk and working up to office supervisor; the other four years in Employee Communications as a writer/photographer.

“Our credit union offers the services most of us need to help manage our money sensibly; I’ve used and very much appreciated several of those services. Tek people on the Credit committee and board of directors have done a great job of helping make the credit union the kind of organization members want it to be. After getting the benefit of other people’s hard work all these years, I’d like to contribute some effort now by serving on the Credit committee.

Joe Jameson joined Tek in January 1956, and presently is pricing specialist in the Pricing Accounting department.

“I served the past year as an alternate on the Credit committee and would very much like to serve you as a regular member for the new year. I’m confident my experience as an alternate, member, and borrower, has and would continue to benefit all members that the credit union serves. I respectfully request your vote of confidence.”

Maureen Key is Human Resources representative, serving Wilsonville field office employees.

“My experience in committee work and extensive acquaintance with employees in all areas of Tek would allow me to be an effective member of the Credit committee. I hope to help continue the progress demonstrated by the credit union in the recent past.”
